Meeting opened at 4:36pm

Motion to accept the minutes from Nov. 4, 2013 made by Nick Koloski Seconded:
Bill Binder Vote: Motion Passed

New Business:

A decision for the design for the license plates needed to be made.

Motion to accept design #3 for the plates made by Dave Lucier Seconded:
Cindy Landry Vote: Motion Passed Bill Carpenter will send the design to the Prison Industries for a mock up.

Decision to buy the plates for $9.00 and sell them for $25.00.

Will order 250-300 plates in the initial order. We can order more if needed.

Nick will speak to Guy Santagate and Mary Walter about having the city provide money for the order.

Gwen Melcher will sell the calendars for us. All 250th merchandise will be sold through the City Collections Office. Other businesses or individuals may either buy the calendars to sell or take them under consignment. Gwen will need to have an accounting of money for the calendars.

Marketing for calendars and other 250th merchandise will be done by Melissa Richmond and Bill Carpenter. They will write and send out the press releases. At this time calendars may also be bought at the Naughty Vine, Doolittle's Printing, Claremont Spice and Dry Goods, and City Collections.

Banners advertising the merchandise will be made at Staples and put on display at the businesses that will sell the items.

Bill Carpenter requested permission to present the visiting politicians with the calendars. He would buy the calendars.

Motion was made to reimburse Bill for three calendars when funds would allow by Dave Lucier Seconded: Bill Binder Vote: Passed

Nick Koloski received permission for the Hale Family display to take place at the Claremont Visitors Center. Bill Binder will follow up with the Visitors Center for other possibilities for the 250th Celebration.

It was decided that if Jason contacted anyone from this committee he would be referred to either David Lucier or Bill Carpenter.

Included in these minutes are events put on by The Claremont Savings Bank Recreation Center. The committee will read prior to next meeting and will vote which ones we will support on at the next meeting.
