Old Business:

Press release will be going out about the calendars, license plates, pins and buttons that are for sale to Eagle Times, Valley News, E-Ticker, CCTV.

At this time calendars are on sale at Doolittle's Print, Marro's Home Center, Claremont Spice, Violette's and Naughty Vine. Denise will contact The Claremont Senior Center. Update-Claremont Senior Center is selling them. The Claremont Savings Bank Recreational Center will also sell 250th merchandise.

License Plates: The City of Claremont has given the committee the money needed to purchase the license plates. There will be no payback. The plates will cost $9.00. The printer has had trouble lining up the colors in the graphic around the windows and clock. The colors are fine. We should have the plates around the 7th or 9th of January.

Arrowhead: Bill Carpenter has contacted Arrowhead to let them know that he has received a donation for the fireworks display on New Year's Eve. Bill Binder will contact Arrowhead to remind them to mention the donation and the 250th Committee's commitment.

Retro Ball: No update

Meeting scheduled for Jan 6 will be a work session for the committee. Discussion to include:

Sept. 20, 2014 event

Alumni Parade--will we do a float???

Retro Ball

Displays at the Visitor's Center

These people will be asked to come to the Jan. 6 meeting to speak for 20 minutes about updates to their projects:

Charlene Lovett--Civil War Monument and Lighting

Deb Booth--The Wells Fargo Coach for the Parade and

Historical House Tour

The Hale Family

Ernie Montenegro-Sculpture update Each will receive a time to speak to us.

Creation for sub-committees and time lines Perhaps for this meeting the committee will do a pot-luck.

Bruce Temple has some bronze plaques from the foundry--perhaps we could display them in the Visitor's Center during the summer Bill Binder will continue to speak to Nancy Merrill re:visitor's center

The possibility of selling T-shirts will be investigated.

Motion to adjourn: Bill Binder

Second: Melissa Richmond
