Bill Binder noted that as a reporter from the E-ticker he was not invited to see Ernie Montenegro cut the hands for the sculpture.

Banner: A grommet tore out in the bottom corner of the banner that is on Pleasant Street.
Skyline Designs will repair it. A motion was made to buy rope to restring the banner and give it more support so that the strain will be on the rope and not the banner. Motion made by David Lucier      Second: Nick Koloski      Vote: passed

We will plan to have the banner on the bandstand for the Army Band Concert on Monday June 30 and have it rehung on Pleasant Street on Tuesday, July 1.

Banner for Birthday in the Bricks: Cost of $7.75 sq. ft. It will be double sided. Banner should have bricks on the sides, arrows pointed here, time, day. Cost is estimated to be less than $1.000. There will be two designs-one for each side. Bill Binder will contact Skyline Designs to come up with three designs for our next meeting.

Contracts for the rides are not ready.

David Lucier noted that there has been a split of groups in Rolling Thunder. The group now known as Live Free or Die will be bringing the bikes in for display for the Birthday in the Bricks.

Chris Cheon spoke about his proposal to create the website for Claremont's 250th Celebration. This should include a template, updates for events, a page for each event, calendar, unlimited pages and up and running by July 8, 2014. Perhaps we could have a banner on pages for sponsorships. Motion to accept Chris Cheon's proposal for Claremont 250th Website, not to exceed $600.00 made by Bill Carpenter Second: Bill Binder Abstained: Melissa Richmond Vote: passed.

Nick Koloski is still working on the card flier. The Kiwanis will be advertising on the other side. Nick will come back in two weeks with a rough draft of our side.

Melissa Richmond: Brought the contracts for the Aardvark Jazz Orchestra for approval. We will also have to pay for the printing of the programs and hiring of the sound equipment.
Motion to accept was tabled until questions are answered at the next meeting.

Discussion held regarding finances for Birthday in the Bricks. It was suggested that perhaps we should consider charging for the rides. More discussion will take place at the next meeting.

An accounting of finances from the Retro Ball will be available at the next meeting.

Cindy Landry was asked to reserve a room for meetings on July 14, July 21 and July 28.
