Melissa will contact David to check with Mary.

Bill Carpenter has asked for letters for members to use so we can solicit businesses, etc. for money to sponsor for the calendar and any other events.

Discussion with the Hale family regarding what they can do for us. The family is giving us permission to use pictures. Discussion on perhaps they could provide pictures for a raffle.

Bill Carpenter will begin to look for sponsors.

Bill Binder: Bill had 8 molds that he is cleaning and photographing.

There was discussion about displays in store fronts.

Melissa will set up a Facebook for the 250th with the Chamber having ownership.

Bill Carpenter stated that the 250th Committee needs to set dates for events.

Bill Carpenter is looking at March 3, 2014 for the Retro Ball.

Bill Carpenter has spoken to the authorities about closing the Opera House Square for events.

The 250th will announce its events at the Union Street Church on October 26 during a concert by the Windham Orchestra.

Nick Koloski met with the Eagle Times Board. They plan to publish a book of past articles and will launch the book in the Atrium of the Opera House.

Nick is planning to go before the City Council for permission to find sponsors for the banners to be set up in Claremont.
