The Library Budget

The potential cuts to the library budget were discussed and the potential effects which included opening for less hours, cutting services and ordering fewer books and no periodicals.

In response to the budget cuts it was decided to rally support for the library budget and for any of the public that wished to support the library to call or write members of the city council and also to attend the first budget hearing on Thursday, May 11, 2017 at city hall. Arthur Vidro offered to write an article for the e-ticker and other board members will call members of the Friends of The Fiske Free Library and start spreading the information to the public to raise support.

Director's Report

None

Arthur Vidro made the motion to adjourn, seconded by Bill Scala. The meeting adjourned at 6:05 pm.
