Hawker and peddler means any person (as defined by RSA 358-A:1), either principal or agent, who:

(1)

Travels either by foot or conveyance from town to town or from place to place in the same town selling or bartering or carrying for sale or barter or exposing therefore any goods, wares, merchandise; or

Travels either by foot or conveyance from town to town or from place to place in the same town offering to perform personal services for household repairs or improvements, or solicits or induces any person to sign any contracts relating to household repairs and improvements to any residence, structure or property; or (3)

Keeps a regular place of business open during regular business hours at the same location, but who offers for sale or sells and delivers, personally or through agents, at a place other than his regular place of business, goods, wares or merchandise.

Itinerant vendor means any person (as defined by RSA 358-A:1), either principal or agent, including any person whose principal place of business is not in this state, who engages in a temporary or transient business in this state, either in one (1) locality or traveling from place to place, selling goods, wares and merchandise, with a total value greater than five hundred dollars ($500.00) from stock or by sample for future delivery, and who, for the purpose of carrying on such business, hires or occupies a temporary place of business. The term "temporary place of business" means any public or quasi-public place, including but not limited to a hotel, motel, rooming house, storeroom, building, part of a building, tent, vacant lot, railroad car, or trailer temporarily occupied for the purpose of making retail sales of goods to the public.
